The African Centre for Democracy and Human Rights Studies (ACDHR) on behalf of the Women's Forum for Peace in Senegal, Guinea Bissau and The Gambia wishes to invite you to a day of advocacy on increasing the participation of women in the consolidation of peace and security in The Gambia, Senegal and Guinea Bissau.

The Platform of Women for Peace in Casamance (PFPC) as part of the Women's Forum received a grant from the African Women's Development Fund (AWDF) in "Strengthening women's participation for the consolidation of peace in Casamance and the stability of the sub-region". The Platform of women for peace in Casamance (PFPC) is organizing a day of advocacy workshop with ECOWAS parliamentarians and various state institutions as part of the activities under the project to advocate for greater participation of women in the management of peace and security in the sub-region.

Participants will include partners from Senegal, parliamentarians, women in peace building, mediation and conflict resolution, civil societies as well as The Gender Action Team (GAT) members and the media.

The said event will be held on 20th May, 2021 at the Sir Dawda K. Jawara International Conference Centre at 9am.

Kindly note that due to the on-going Coronavirus pandemic social distancing will be observed.

While looking forward to hearing from you, we thank you in advance for your contribution towards sustainable peace in The Gambia, Senegal and Guinea Bissau.

Yours faithfully,
